

Films with a fair trade focus

| Title | Year Released | Description | Product Focus / Theme | Country / Region |
|--|----------------------|---|------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Life and Debt | 2001 | Life and Debt addresses the impact of the International trade agreements and globalisation policies on life in Jamaica. Running time: Approx. 86 mins. | International trade | Jamaica |
| Black Gold | 2006 | Black Gold exposes the injustices of the international coffee market. It follows coffee growers in Ethiopia and their struggle against multinational coffee companies. Running time: Approx. 78 mins. | Coffee | Ethiopia |
| Bonita: Ugly Bananas | 2011 | Bonita: Ugly Bananas follows Trade Union Banana farmers in Ecuador as they fight against the plantation owner for basic working and living rights. Running time: Approx. 23 mins. | Bananas | Ecuador |
| Bananas* | 2009 | Bananas* follows a legal battle between American company Dole and banana workers from Nicaragua. The farmers argue they were exposed to a dangerous banned pesticide that was known to cause sterility. | Bananas | Nicaragua |
| The Great African Scandal | 2007 | The Great African Scandal explores the effect of rice, chocolate and gold trade on socio-economic conditions in Ghana. It asks why a country so rich in natural resources is one of the poorest in the world. Running time: Approx. 48 mins. | Rice, chocolate, gold | Africa |
| On the Coffee Trail | 2014 | On the Coffee Trail is a BBC documentary that uncovers the stories behind coffee production in Vietnam, the UK's biggest supplier. Running time: Approx. 59 mins. | Coffee | Vietnam |
| On the Tea Trail | 2014 | On the Tea Trail is a BBC documentary that explores the tea industry in East Africa and exposes its links with poverty, low wages and child labour. Running time: Approx.60 mins. | Tea | East Africa |

Films with a fair trade focus

| | | | | |
|---|-------------|--|------------------|-------------------|
| The Banana Industry of the Windward Islands | 2013 | The Banana Industry of the Windward Islands is a short expose by the Guardian which looks at the impact of a devastating hurricane and European tariff charges on banana farmers on the Island. It reveals the impact of Fairtrade on farmers trying to rebuild their livelihoods and community. Running time: Approx. 5 mins. | Bananas | Dominica |
| The co-operative film about Fairtrade bananas | 2008 | The co-operative film about Fairtrade bananas shows the journey and growth of the Fairtrade banana market. It focuses on the longest established retailer/Fairtrade producer partnership and its impact in Ghana. Running time: Approx. 8 mins. | Bananas | Ghana |
| Clothes to Die for | 2014 | Clothes to Die For looks at the garment industry in Bangladesh and uncovers the stories behind the Rana Plaza Disaster. Running time: Approx. 60 mins. | Clothes | Bangladesh |
| The Dark Side of Chocolate | 2010 | The Dark Side of Chocolate follows a team of journalists as they investigate the role of child slavery and trafficking in chocolate production in the Ivory Coast. Running time: Approx. 46 mins. | Chocolate | Mali |